Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Internal Revenue Code (commonly known as "FATCA") generally impose withholding of 30% on certain payments to certain foreign entities (including financial intermediaries) unless various U.S. information reporting, diligence requirements and certain other requirements have been satisfied. Payments subject to withholding generally will include interest (including original issue discount), dividends, rents, annuities, and other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits or income, if such payments are derived from U.S. sources, as well as gross proceeds from dispositions of securities that could produce U.S. source interest or dividends. FATCA withholding generally applies to these payments made after June 30, 2014, or, in the case of payments of gross proceeds described above, after December 31, 2016.

Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Internal Revenue Code (commonly known as "FATCA") generally impose withholding of 30% on certain payments to certain foreign entities (including financial intermediaries) unless various U.S. information reporting, diligence requirements and certain other requirements have been satisfied. Payments subject to withholding generally will include interest (including original issue discount), dividends, rents, annuities, and other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits or income, if such payments are derived from U.S. sources, as well as gross proceeds from dispositions of securities that could produce U.S. source interest or dividends. FATCA withholding generally applies to these payments made after June 30, 2014, or, in the case of payments of gross proceeds described above, after December 31, 2016.
